Magic Chef Sets Hawaiian Isles Celebration Today

The Hawaiian Isles comes to Magic Chef Market today, and the big new market in the Del Amo Shopping Center is giving away a luxury trip to Hawaii for two in celebration.

Grand prize at Magic Chef's Hawaiian Isles celebration, which will continue through this week end, will be a seven-day trip to Hawaii for two, via United Air Lines first-class jet.

IN HAWAII, the lucky winner will stay at the beautiful Hawaiian Village Hotel in Waikiki's finest beach, with a choice of dozens of sports in the sea and sun, or just loafing on the beach.

And there's nothing to do prize — just leave your name and address at Magic Chef. Winners need not be present at the time of the drawing, Aug. 29.

AND THERE are more prizes, too, for the winning at Magic Chef. Authentic Hawaiian mummies from the famous Walter Clarke's Hawaiian Shops — 25 of them for 25 winners; just the thing to wear when you're lying around the lanai. On Saturday, leis will be presented to visitors at Magic Chef Market.

South Seas decor will fill the store, and there'll be lots and lots of bargains for your luau. Come and see Hawaii in Tor-

IN THE MOOD... Store Manager Vince Michael places lei on Ruby Klawonn, checker at the huge Magic Chef Market in the Del Amo Shopping Center, as they prepare for a Hawaiian Isles celebration here this week end. Climax of the celebration will be the awarding of a seven-day trip to Hawaii for two. (Herald Photo)

Contract Awarded

Receipt of a contract for approximately $300,000 from the U.S. Naval Bureau of Weapons has been announced by Ryan Electronics. The contract calls for improvements made recently to be incorporated into the Navy's Doppler navigation equipment.

Work on the project will be done at the firm's San Diego facility.

When love and skill work together, expect a masterpiece.

Chamber Breakfast Meet To Honor Security Bank

"Salute to Security First National Bank" will be the theme of the Monthly Membership Breakfast Meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 30, at the Masonic Lodge of Torrance, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

In making the announcement, Chairman Joe Doss and Fred Hansen said the meeting would welcome the City's newest bank and a number of the financial institution's top officials. Among guests will be Gil Pando, manager of the Security Branch located in North-west Torrance at 190th St. and Anza. The branch will officially open for business on Friday.

The other special guest will be James Weigel, manager of the Torrance Branch which is located on the site of the former City Auditorium at Cravens and El Prado. This modern branch is scheduled to hold ribbon-cutting ceremonies on Friday, Sept. 23.

Breakfast serving starts at 7:20 a.m. and the meeting will end promptly at 8:30 a.m.

Reservations may be secured by calling the Chamber office, FA 8-2814.

Cartoonist Is Special Guest

The Rev. Jack Foster, a former cartoonist with the Walt Disney Studios, will be the featured speaker at a special Friday evening service at the Harbor City Foursquare Church. The Rev. Mr. Foster has worked in more than 30 denominations of the Christian religion, including the Youth for Christ Radio series.

The Messengers, an outstanding vocal quintet that has been featured in many musicals throughout the Los Angeles area, will be featured at the Sunday evening service.

Both Friday and Sunday evening services will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday the young people of the church will engage in a car wash campaign to provide funds for the church building fund. They will use the service station located at the corner of 101 and Wilmington Blvd. on Aug. 20, Aug. 27 and Sept. 4.

Fair Will Aid Building Fund

"Around The World In A Day" will be the theme for the St. Luke's Country Fair to be held Sept. 24th by St. Luke's Presbyterian Church from a.m. to 10 p.m. Proceeds of the Fair will go into the church building fund.

Featured at the Fair will be television's Jimmy Weldon with Webster Webfoot, and the Ed Russell Shows — including a fire-eater, snake charmer, and many other side show attractions.

Rides of all kinds for children, game and food booths, and handmade gift items will offer interest and entertainment for the entire family. A chicken dinner will be served by the Women's Assn. will be one of the highlights of the Fair.
